Welcome to the third Student Opportunity Bulletin of the 2023-2024 school year.

This weekly bulletin will inform students, parents, and staff in a timely manner about internships, academic programs, jobs, community service options, and leadership initiatives, along with other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

These various opportunities utilize different formats. Some are in-person, some remote, and some will involve a hybrid arrangement. Check each program for their specific format and schedule. Students should consider applying to any that match their interests and talents. Some program deadlines are fast approaching – please do not miss them!

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

There are a number of excellent new opportunities in this issue with fast-approaching deadlines - including (just to highlight a few):

EVENTS: There is a free virtual ‘STEM Careers Pathway’ panel discussion on 9/30. There are several upcoming Architecture/Design Fairs for students with an interest in this field, with the next on 10/1.

BUSINESS/JOBS: Conde Nast offers a Media Industry Internship program for current juniors – the application deadline is 9/24! The free Rock the Street Wall Street finance industry/personal finance five-week program for female students takes place at Stuy on Tuesday afternoons (students work with female professional finance industry executives) and begins next Tuesday (9/26). The Harvard BOLD Conference in November for female students had virtual or in-person components. And the Coder School near Stuyvesant offers part-time paid jobs teaching coding to younger students – some knowledge of popular CS languages required.

LEADERSHIP/GOVERNMENT:

The National Student Language Institute offers in-person travel (summer) and virtual (spring) programs for students interested in learning certain new languages. The Teen Health Advisory Committee welcomes all students interested in public health to apply for their lower-Manhattan-based advocacy program. And the Youth Action NYC year-long activist program offers a stipend to its participants.

ART: The Parsons Scholars art & design program for current lower-income sophomores runs for three years, including summers; it meets on Saturdays throughout the school year.

STEM: The deadline for the online MIT/BeaverWorks Tech/Computer Science courses for current 10th & 11th grade female students has been extended to 9/24.

Columbia University's Synthetic Biology program welcomes all students to apply to its free weekend virtual introduction to this new field. The free, in-person School of Interactive Arts Game Design program accepts applications from all students. And all students interested in engineering, architecture, and construction may apply for the ACE Mentor weekly partnership with a team of professionals from the Port Authority – participants work with them on real-life projects Tuesdays at their nearby offices after school.

RESOURCES/LISTS: STANDOUT maintains an ongoing list of internships & opportunities for high school students.

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
