CATEGORY TABLE OF CONTENTS:

(Download this entire PDF document in order to use the following links to jump to your area(s) of interest)

This weekly bulletin informs students, parents, and staff about internships, academic programs, jobs, community service options, and leadership initiatives, along with other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.
Some program deadlines are fast approaching – please do not miss them!

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

There are many excellent opportunities in this issue - including several highlighted below.

EVENTS: There is a large after-school National Summer Program Fair at NYU on January 17th – many different program opportunities will be represented. And there are upcoming Information Sessions for academic/STEM options at NYU's Tandon School of Engineering and Columbia scheduled for the next week or two.

ACADEMICS: Many colleges offer spring and summer precollege classes for high school students – a variety of these may be found in this section. Financial aid often may be available for eligible students.

BUSINESS/CAREERS: Two excellent programs that connect students to business/job opportunities for the summer are now accepting applications. Ladders for Leaders is for students 16 and older – the application deadline is January 21st! And Futures & Options also connects older students with paid summer business internships, as well as offering the Career Essentials option for younger students. Apex for Youth and the New York Institute of Technology have upcoming Business/Career Support Sessions, open to all grades.

MUSEUMS/ART: The Jewish Museum on 5th Avenue in Manhattan offers a free February vacation-week Video Production Workshop, open to all students. The Cooper Hewitt Design Museum in Manhattan welcomes all students to their free Open Drawing Studio on January 25th; participants can create and learn about careers in art & design.

STEM: The Neurology Department at Columbia's Medical School welcomes applicants in 10th, 11th, and 12th grades to apply for its virtual STEM/Healthcare-oriented free spring program, which will meet on Saturday mornings. Interested students may email hblumm@stuy.edu to apply (deadline: January 16th @ 12:00pm). The Perry Initiative at Einstein Medical College in the Bronx welcomes sophomores and older students who identify as women or nonbinary to apply for their in-person medical education event on March 2nd – the application deadline is February 5th. And NASA offers several internship programs around the country for high school students; many have an application deadline of February 2nd.

THEATER/WRITING/MUSIC: The free NYC Summer Arts Institute at Frank Sinatra High School in Queens offers a variety of programs in film, dance, concert band, orchestral strings, theater, visual arts or vocal music under NYC D.O.E. arts teachers, arts organizations, and master guest artists. 9th, 10th, and 11th graders may apply.

Events of Interest to Students:

Deadline Approaching: Future Engineers Power to Explore Challenge

"Your challenge is learn about nuclear 'batteries' that power space exploration and dream up a new space mission. Your task is to plan a mission that uses Radioisotope Power Systems (RPS) to explore a location with limited light. RPS enables exploration to the deepest, darkest, and dustiest places, and NASA wants to hear where you would go, what you would explore, and how you would use this special power to achieve mission success.

Fifteen national semifinalists in each grade category (45 semifinalists total) will receive a NASA RPS Prize Pack. Three national finalists in each grade category (9 finalists total) will receive an exclusive virtual session with a NASA RPS expert. One grand prize winner from each grade category (3 grand prize winners in total) will receive a trip for two to NASA's Glenn Research Center in Cleveland, Ohio, to learn about the people and technologies that power NASA missions."

Eligible: All students

Application Deadline: January 26

Joint Science Education Project (JSEP) Program

"The two-week virtual Joint Science Education Project Program (JSEP) based in Greenland takes place in late June and July and is open to current juniors who are American citizens. Program Activities: U.S. students complete hands-on modules and a group research project. A series of interactive modules led by Dartmouth graduate students and faculty introduce them to various topics in polar research (e.g., snow and ice physics; cold engineering; ecology of soils, plants, and animal life; the human dimensions of Arctic change). U.S. students then complete an inquiry-based research project based on topics of interest under the mentorship of a graduate student or faculty instructor. We host a virtual project symposium at the end of the program for students to share their work with a broader audience."

Eligible: All current juniors who are American citizens and will be 18 by 6/1/24

Dates: Late June – July (field program) OR late July or August (remote program)

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
